Case No. 2:13-cv-2263-RFB-GWF

ORDER

14 This matter is before the Court on the parties' Stipulation to Stay (ECF No. 210), filed on 15 May 22, 2017.

16 The parties request a 180 day stay of discovery on the basis that the Ninth Circuit may set
17 Benjamin v. B & H Education, Inc. for oral argument in August of 2017 and that Benjamin may 18 impact the outcome of this matter. The Court denies the parties' request without prejudice for two 19 reasons. First, the parties do not provide sufficient information about how Benjamin impacts this 20 matter to warrant a stay of discovery. Second, the stipulation does not inform the court as to what 21 remaining discovery needs to be conducted if a stay is not granted. Accordingly,

22 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that parties' Stipulation to Stay (ECF No. 210) is denied, 23 without prejudice.

24 DATED this 23rd day of May, 2017.
